NOTES

Note 1: Building practitioner means—

- (a) a building surveyor; or
- (b) a building inspector; or
- (c) a quantity surveyor; or
- (d) an engineer engaged in the building industry; or
- (e) a draftsman who carries on a business of preparing plans for building work or preparing documentation relating to permits and permit applications; or
- (f) a builder including a domestic builder; or
- (g) a person who erects or supervises the erection of prescribed temporary structures; or
- (h) a person responsible for a building project or any stage of a building project and who belongs to a class of people prescribed to be building practitioners—

but does not include—

- (i) an architect; or
- (j) a person (other than a domestic builder) who does not carry on the business of building.

Note 2: Include building practitioners with continuing involvement in the building work.

Note 3: Include only building practitioners with no further involvement in the building work.

Note 4: The use of the building may also be subject to additional requirements under other legislation such as the Liquor Control Reform Act 1998 and the Dangerous Goods Act 1985.

Note 5: If an owner-builder there are restrictions on the sale of the building under section 137B of the Building Act 1993. Section 137B prohibits an owner-builder from selling a building on which domestic building work has been carried out within 6½ years from the completion of the relevant building work unless they have satisfied certain requirements including obtaining compulsory insurance. The Victorian Building Authority maintains a current list of domestic insurance providers.
