

Domestic Builder

(Limited to Bathroom, Kitchen & Laundry Renovation)

Technical Referee Report

This report must be completed by the referee and accompanies the Domestic Builder (limited to bathroom, kitchen and laundry renovation) registration application form.

To be a referee you should be a registered Domestic Builder (unlimited) or be registered in the class of building work for which the applicant is applying. You must have directly supervised the applicant carrying out the work listed in the reference.

Use this form to tell us about domestic building work that the applicant carried out under your supervision.

The VBA uses your referee report to help determine whether an applicant should be registered as a building practitioner. We may contact you to confirm the information in this reference.

Explanation of terms

Assisted	Refers to when the applicant has assisted a competent and qualified practitioner in the carrying out of a particular component of building work.
Carried out	The actual hands-on carrying out of building work. It refers to when the applicant has been solely responsible for that component of building work.
Managed	The management of building work. It refers to when the applicant was not involved in the actual carrying out of that component other than engaging a competent practitioner to do so; however, you as the manager/supervisor were responsible for the quality and compliance of that component of work.

Please indicate the components of building work that the applicant either assisted, carried out, or managed under your supervision (may be one project only).

How the VBA uses and discloses your personal information

The Victorian Building Authority (VBA) is collecting your personal information (including any images or photographs and any and all details provided in this form), to process your application. If you do not provide all or any part of the information requested in this form, the VBA may be unable to process and subsequently grant your application. The VBA may also use such information for the following purposes:

- (a) To enable the VBA to meet its statutory obligations, functions and perform its operational requirements.
- (b) Researching and assessing the merit and impact of proposed regulatory reforms and to assist in the development and delivery of services by the VBA (whether to you personally or a member of the public).
- (c) Law enforcement by the VBA or other regulatory bodies, including prosecutions or disciplinary action against you if required.
- (d) Maintaining disciplinary and licensing and registration registers for building and plumbing practitioners (published on the VBA's website).
- (e) Such other purposes as required by law or authorised under the privacy legislation.

The VBA may also share your personal information with third parties including, but not limited to, different business units within the VBA, the Building Appeals Board, Consumer Affairs Victoria, the Victorian Managed Insurance Authority, your insurer, other regulators (both in Victoria and interstate), your clients or customers and the VBA's staff and/or service providers who need to know such information to perform services for the VBA.

The VBA will only disclose your personal information to a third party claiming to act on your behalf (for example, an agent or interpreter) with your prior written consent, unless it is otherwise apparent that the third party has authority to act on your behalf.

You can request access to the personal information, the VBA holds about you. If you become aware that personal information the VBA holds about you is not accurate, complete or up to date, you can ask the VBA to correct it.

The VBA's full Privacy Policy and information about how to contact the VBA is available at www.vba.vic.gov.au/legal/privacy.
